

A common cancels, only differential ($\propto \sigma$) fools selection $\Rightarrow \|\hat{\mu} - \mu\| \propto \sigma^2$

B the surviving bias is optimism (model claims a gain it does not deliver), and both vanish as $\sigma \rightarrow 0$

